

Sarah Matt
VP of Medical Affairs
EverlyWell
Austin, TX

Sarah Matt MD is the VP of Medical Affairs at EverlyWell, a mid-stage startup in Austin, TX. She leads the medical affairs team as they build medical credibility focused around straight to consumer laboratory tests. Before joining EverlyWell Dr.

Matt was the VP of Solutions Strategy at Nextgen Healthcare. She worked for many years running product management teams in the EMR healthcare space, and then at a broader level on strategy and product management operations.

Dr. Matt received her BS in Biology at Cornell University and her MD at SUNY Upstate Medical University prior to completing her MBA at the University of Texas. Dr. Matt is a practicing physician and volunteers her time at the Sacred Heart Community Clinic where she provides chronic care management to uninsured patients in the Round Rock area. She resides in Austin, Texas and continues to give back to her community through her work with the Cosmopolitan Rotary Club of Austin.