

Neal Golden
President and Vice Chairman
Newmark Knight Frank

Neal Golden serves as President, Texas Regional Manager and Vice Chairman of Newmark, leading operations and expansion initiatives including providing active counsel on national corporate recruitment and acquisition strategies for the state of Texas. Mr. Golden has oversight of client relations, strategic planning, profitability and high-level industry pursuits, and he fosters growth of the Newmark brand statewide, encompassing Newmark and its multifamily capital markets division, Jackson Cooksey and E Smith Advisors.

As vice chairman and leader of Newmark's full-service real estate platform, Mr. Golden guides corporate clients on acquisitions, dispositions, leasing and global portfolio advisory, strategic planning and financial services. He spearheaded Newmark's national retail and hospitality platform (2011-2016) and is a known expert on the representation of prestigious law firms nationwide. In addition to running the Texas region, Mr. Golden leads a team of 20 national platform brokers providing acquisitions and representation services.

A more than 10-time Deal of the Year award winner for transactions throughout the United States, Mr. Golden is regarded as an industry expert by Real Estate Forum, Grid magazine and Commercial Property News. He is a featured speaker and guest lecturer for firms around the country, including National Real Estate Investor and for ALA, Lex Mundi, Group of Ten and the U. S. Law Firm Group.

Mr. Golden joined Newmark in 2002 as head of U.S. brokerage to provide counsel for the company's national expansion. Prior to Newmark, Mr. Golden was head of the southeastern region at Julien J. Studley, Inc. (now Savills Studley), where he was instrumental in the opening of regional offices in Atlanta, Miami and Dallas.

Mr. Golden is actively involved in the community and currently serves on the advisory board of The McCombs School of Business at The University of Texas at Austin. In 2018, Mr. Golden planted a seed with Newmark's affiliate, Cantor Fitzgerald Company, for a milestone event to help rebuild Texas following the aftermath of Hurricane Harvey. During a two-day event, the Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund, with 150 professionals from Cantor, Newmark and other offices in Houston, Dallas and Austin, and in association with the mayor and city of Houston, donated $5 million to aid affected Houston residents. Mr. Golden is active on behalf of the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation and participated in fund raising campaigns for the American Cancer Society. He is also a member of the strategic planning commission for The Camp Sunshine Foundation for Children with Cancer and a contributor to the United Way.
